

Integration Modules

SunFish CM includes a wide range of integrated modules. For the vast majority of websites, these modules address every requirement for the website. Major modules such as those shown below allow the complete development and management of a simple corporate website up to a complex multi-language, multi-site communication environment.

CMS Functions

- * Web-based CMS solution
- * Separation of Layout and content
- * Own creation of templates
- * Optional use of default templates, work with Template Wizard
- * Quick and easy takeover of existing pages, or Design templates
- * Template as well as article and picture management are done via WYSIWYG editors and Drag & Drop menus, so that no knowledge of programming languages is needed.
- * Article management is done via website preview
- * Different types of navigation
- * Version Tracking for articles and templates
- * Media library
- * Basic Personalization
- * Unlimited Workflow depths
- * Unlimited privilege rights for administrator and editor groups
- * Clearly arranged Online help files for CMS use
- Static and dynamic page generation
- * Website preview
- * Multi language
- Multiple Site Management
- * Individual publishing schedules, separation of article creation and publication
- * Import of any type of text formats
- * Modular page production with the help of data objects and data object containers
- * Extensible with any Add Ons (eCommerce, Intranet Module, etc) any time
- * Full Support, user manuals, Online support, Support Forum, Phone Support

Integrated Modules

- * News
- * Newsletter
- * Contact-/Feedback form
- * Login
- * Registration
- * Guest book
- * Gallery
- * Search: Full text and keyword
- * Automatic Sitemap
- * Print versions of articles
- * Archive
- * Date and time display
- * Hit counter